A Song of the Trinity.

Air—"Rock of Ages."

Holy, holy, holy one!
God the Father, God the Son,
God the Holy Ghost, let me
Worship, daily, only Thee—
Three in one, and one in Three—
Trinity in Unity.

God, Creator of all things,
God, from whom all being springs;
God, who gave the angels birth:
God of Heav'n and God of Earth,
God our Refuge, Rock and Tower,
In whose strength is all our power:

God Incarnate, God the Son,
Loving but rejected one,
Dying once for such as I;
Living now that none should die:
Weary, worn, afflicted one,
Jesus Christ, God's only Son.

God the Holy Ghost, Divine
Comforter of all that's thine,
Healer of each broken heart,
Thou all consolation art:
Purifying all within,
Showing Christ, and slaying sin.

God, our Father, God we bless,
Christ, thou Sun of Righteousness,
Holy Spirit, gentle dove,
Trine God, and God is Love;
Grace to keep me while I live,
Father, Son, and Spirit, give!

MARY.
